

Saying Thank You: A Vocabulary Exercise

Find the expressions in the dialog that match the equivalents below:

Part A:

Fill in here the translations in your own language (Spanish, Italian, German, etc.) Then make sure both columns have letters of the same size and font and that the spacing between the lines is the same. Finally, make a student copy by removing the words in English and placing blank lines instead.	must have been by the way take you up on your kind offer look forward to look forward to hearing from you as good as great deal of work though say hello to on the line T-bone steaks is off to I'll have to try it out had to get on the TGV (super fast or bullet train) I'll look into (it) research lab let them know the next couple of months. lodgings deserve credit
---	--

Part B:

Fill in here the translations in your own language (Spanish, Italian, German, etc.) Then make sure both columns have letters of the same size and font and that the spacing between the lines is the same. Finally, make a student copy by removing the words in English and placing blank lines instead.

give my regards to
 we're better off
 we went to the restaurant extension 792 (seven-nine-two) powder snow
 enjoy
 Who is calling?
 ski touring
 meet someone
 meal
 network
 go out of one's way
 If ever
 otherwise
 skiing
 ski resorts
 spare ribs
 another
 quite a treat.
 trip back to